

BRAND NEW STAR

What if I won a million hearts today
Would you help me find the ones
That keep my world go 'round

What if I walked a million miles today
Would you help me find the way
To find a place to stay

Tell me where to go
Don't leave me here alone
Don't run away
A fifty million times
I know I've said
I'm fine on my own

Tell me what is right

Tell me what is wrong

Don't run away

I'll be doing fine

It's tearing me apart

I'm looking for a brand new star

What if I lost a million tears today

Would you help me find the ones

That keep me feeling down

What if I stopped a million times today

Would you help me find the eyes

To see the go on signs

Tell me where to go ...
