

Saturday Night Girl

lyrics by roli

music by goodron

Sunday morning I walked alone, alone in the morning sun
Thinkin' bout the night we've had, your blue eyes and your blonde hair

Monday morning I had to work but my mind was far away
Thinkin' bout what's best for me, my heart my mind they don't agree

Baby want you be

Tuesday morning I've had no sleep, my bed is full of memories
First we talked bout the world and laughed, that night was meant to never end

Wednesday morning I turned my mobile on, wishing to get some letters of you
Somehow they wouldn't come, no morning sun for me today

Baby want you be my girl?

Here I'm sitting alone I got tears in my eyes
In my hands my guitar I feel my bleeding heart
All this pain, all this words, they are only for you
Maybe you'll understand, maybe you'll be my girl

Thursday morning I am down, down I wanna leave this town
Going to the moon and start a life all alone with me

Friday morning I can see how hard tomorrow's gonna be Wishing I could turn back time, one week when you were mine

Baby want you be my girl?

Here I'm sitting alone I got tears in my eyes
In my hand my guitar I feel my bleeding heart
All this pain, all this words, they are only for you
Maybe you'll understand, maybe you'll be my girl
